Nexis Uni is a directory of professional contact information that includes phone numbers and email addresses. From the Research Guides, choose A – Z List, choose “N”, then Nexis Uni (Search Directories).

To find a staff member at a specific company, enter the company name (example: Nike) and click on the red magnifying glass. To further filter your results enter a title, such as “human resources” in the “search within results” box on the top right of your results page.

To narrow your search enter a name or job title in the “Search Within Results.”

Records include address, job title, phone number, and email address.
